IGlobal University Signed a Collaboration & Partnership Agreement with Mongolian National Broadcaster (MNB).

IGlobal University (IGU) located in Vienna, VA (near Washington, DC), accredited by ACCSC and certified by SCHEV entered into a collaboration and partnership agreement with Mongolian National Broadcaster (MNB) so that a large number of MNB staff and employees can take IGU's undergraduate and graduate programs to broaden their horizons and expand their worldviews. IGU will provide scholarships to qualified students for their study at IGU. MNB will promote IGU in Mongolia through their prime-time broadcasting.

General Director Ninjamts Luvsandash and Dr. David Sohn, founder, president & CEO signed the agreement at the IGU campus on June 25, 2019, with MNB Board Member Chilaajav Khaidav and all the IGU staff observing. IGlobal University held 2019 Graduation Ceremony on June 22 with 600 guests attending. During the Ceremony, General Director Luvsandash of MNB delivered congratulatory remarks to the 89 graduates from 13 different countries.

Dr. Sohn presented Certification of Appreciation to General Director Luvsandash not only for her special speech delivered to the graduates, but also for signing the Agreement between MNB and IGU.
